

Initiatives

ASCIA Annual Conference 2016

786 delegates – a 39.6% increase from 2015

ASCIA action plans

updated significantly in 2016 including infographics - only region worldwide with standardised action plans for anaphylaxis

National Allergy Strategy

implementation of 1st stage with Allergy & Anaphylaxis Australia and other stakeholders in 2016

ASCIA guidelines for infant feeding and allergy prevention

1st region worldwide in 2016 to include latest study results

ASCIA anaphylaxis e-training expanded in 2016 to include Victorian schools - only region worldwide to have free, online standardised anaphylaxis training

ASCIA primary immunodeficiency (PID)

e-training and online resources available on ASCIA website and ASCIA PID (APID) consultants and advanced training meetings held in 2016

Collaborations

National Allergy Strategy

partnership with Allergy & Anaphylaxis Australia (A&AA), working together with other stakeholders since 2014

AusPollen research project partner since 2014

CFAR annual symposium and infant feeding meetings co-hosted by ASCIA since 2015

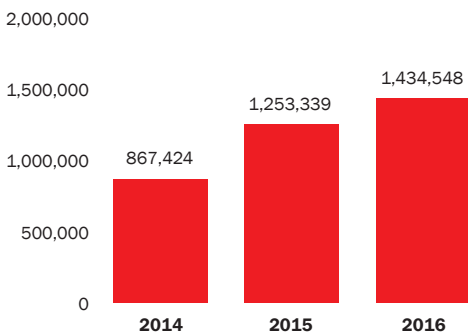

NPS Choosing Wisely Australia and RACP Evolve partner since 2015

TAPID (Transplantation and PID) project since 2013

HealthDirect Australia and Better Health Channel website content partners

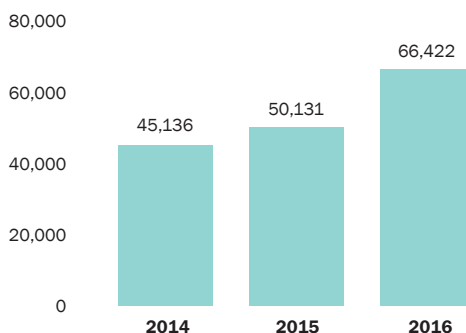

ASCIA Website

>1.4 million unique visitors in 2016

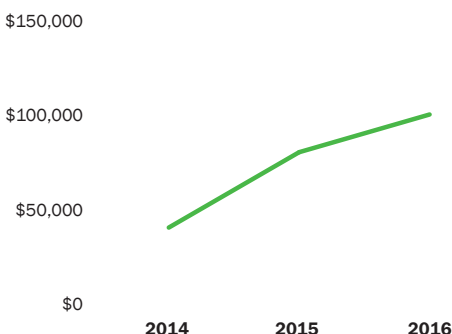

ASCIA e-training Courses

66,422 new registrations in 2016

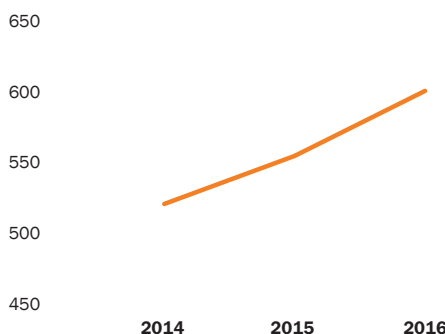

AIFA Research Grants

$100,000 in grants awarded to date

ASCIA Membership

>600 members in 2016

Plans for 2017 include...

ASCIA 2017 Conference

Launch of new ASCIA Food Allergen Challenge and Immunodeficiency Registers

Completion of National Allergy Strategy Stage 1 projects and commencement of Stage 2

Increased collaborations and research funding

New ASCIA allergic rhinitis e-training and resources for pharmacists

New ASCIA drug allergy e-training and resources

New and updated ASCIA Guidelines and Position Papers

TAPID face to face meeting

ASCIA Advanced Training Meeting (Allergy)